Cousin Book

by Edith Jackson Hankins
Cousin Book

An accounting of the known ancestors and descendants of William Joshua Bradley and his wife, Edna Earl Burpo.

This is not a book about the genealogical findings of a long study. It is, rather, a report to my family of what has been uncovered, so far, in our quest to know more about our people.

WILLIAM JOSHUA AND EDNA BURPO BRADLEY

William Joshua Bradley (Bill) was born February 24, 1884 in Denison, Texas. He was third child of Joshua Ferdinand (Ferd) and Sarah Ann Brown Bradley. Joshua Ferdinand was born about 1849 in Effingham, Illinois, to John (Joshua) and Matilda Susan Bourland Bradley. Joshua Ferdinand married, in Effingham, Illinois on November 26, 1871, Miss Sarah Ann Brown. Sarah was the daughter of William Alexander and Louisa Jane Renshaw Brown. Sarah was born October 13, 1854 in Effingham, Illinois. Grandpa's brothers and sisters were:

James Rudy, born in February of 1875, in Illinois, who worked as a nurseryman at his Grandpa's Caney Nursery near Ector, Texas. Rudy married Margaret Sanders on November 17, 1907.

Second child of Ferdinand and Sarah was Edna. She was born in Grayson County, Texas in May of 1881. Edna was married to Mr. Welch and lived in Paris, Texas when she signed her mother's death certificate. According to Ray Brown, she later married Mr. Conine. I have been unable to learn anything further about Aunt Edna; although I remember her well.

Grandpa's sister, Tillie (Matilda for her paternal grandmother) was born in February of 1886 and married Self Sanders. I believe that they lived in Paris, Texas.

Fifth child of Ferd and Sary was Walter Bradley. He was born in October of 1888 and married Lulu Sanders on November 17, 1907. According to the family bible, the youngest daughter of Ferd and Sary was Vina and she burned to death while making her wedding dress.
Grandpa's dad, Ferdinand, died in 1892 and Great Grandma Bradley married Mr. Hampton. Sarah Ann Brown Hampton was the mother of Claude, who was born in September of 1894 in Grayson County, Texas. By the 1900 census record, she was a widow again. Claude married Nettie and lived in Mexico.

Great Grandma Hampton’s death was June 20, 1942 in Paris, Texas. I will tell more about Grandma and Grandpa’s children before narrating the ancestors of Grandpa William Joshua Bradley in Chapters 2 and 3.

Grandma, Bina Earl Burpo, was born near Wolf City, Texas on August 16, 1887. Her parents were James Thomas and Ivy Susie Belcher Burpo. Grandpa William Joshua Bradley's grandfather was James H. Bradley, who was born 1797 in North Carolina and came to Middle Tennessee in about 1818. They migrated to Randolph County, Illinois where James married Martha Hughes on November 28, 1820. Martha was daughter of James Hughes.

James H. and Martha Bradley appear on the 1830 and 1840 federal census of Jackson County, Illinois. Of their 12 children, 6 lived to maturity.

James H., Jr. was born about 1822 in Jackson County, Illinois. His wife, Rebecca H., was born about 1826 in Indiana. Their children were Eliza, born about 1840; Cynthia C., born about 1847; Charles M., born about 1848; Louisa F., born about 1849. The dates are from the 1850 census and from "History of Effingham County, Ill. 1910" by Batesman and Selby, page 723; "James H. Bradley, a soldier, who was honorably discharged and accidentally killed after his return home."

Joshua Bradley, who was called "John" was next of the children of James H. and Martha H. Bradley. He was born on October 10, 1823 in Jackson County, Illinois and married Matilda Susan Bourland Flack in March of 1843.

Matilda Susan Bourland was born November 27, 1819 in Monroe County, Mississippi and married (1) Milton Flack. Their son, James A. Flack, was born February 18, 1844 at Pleasanton, Illinois. After Milton's death, Matilda Susan married Great, Great Grandpa and her son, James, learned the marblecutting trade from him. James married Mary Elizabeth Baldwin on April 19, 1866. Mary Elizabeth was born 1841 in Ohio and their children are:

Edward Emerson, born July 25, 1867, who married Anna Hough on June 29, 1893 and died on April 2, 1939.

Joshua Ferdinand Bradley, born 1849 in Effingham, Illinois; is next in chronological order, and he married Sarah Ann Brown on November 26, 1871. I have listed their children in chapter 1, as brothers of William Joshua Bradley. Joshua Ferdinand died about 1892 in Texas. I do not have a copy of Ford's death certificate.

John Henry Bradley was born December 19, 1854 in Summit Township, Effingham, Illinois to Joshua and Susan Bourland Bradley. He married Sarah Kagway on March 11, 1875. Sarah was born on Oct. 17, 1858 to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Kagway. Their children:

John Henry Bradley died in 1916. Sarah died in 1940. They were Missionary Baptists and he worked with marble; was town clerk of Mound Township, Effingham, Illinois.

Sixth child of Joshua and Susan Bradley was Mary Virginia. She was born about 1857 in Effingham, Illinois. She married Andrew J. Gloyd of St. Elmo, Illinois. (They lived at Williamsville, Ill.) Their seven children are:

Lula Grace who married (1) Frank Littlefield and had three daughters; Gertrude, Marcella Minerva, Virginia.

Mary Edith Gloyd married Rev. James Stabbins.

Arthur Gloyd died young.

Sixth child of Joshua and Susan Bradley was William. He was born about 1859 and died before the 1870 federal census came out.

Joshua Bradley died March 1, 1892; Matilda Susan Bourland Bradley died September 28, 1904 in Effingham, Illinois. I believe that they are buried at Oak Ridge Cemetery there.

Mary Ann Bradley was born to James H. and Martha Bradley between 1825 and 1830. She married Woodridge and died in California.

William C. Bradley was born May 10, 1834 or 1835 to James H. and Martha Bradley. He made his home with his Uncle Richard A. Bradley after 1851. Richard was twice elected to State Legislature on Democratic ticket. In April, 1865, William C. married Nelliea Martha Hughes Bradley died in 1844 or 1845 in Jackson County, Ill., and in the 1850 census, James H. is listed with his second wife, Sarah W. Thorne, and her children by her previous marriage, as well as their daughter, Louisa C. Bradley, who was born about 1849.

James H. Bradley was a stonemason and Justice of Peace for twelve years in Bradley Township, Jackson County, Illinois. He died in 1866 near Shiloh Hill and is buried there in Jackson Co., Ill.

Martha Hughes Bradley was born on October 15, 1804 in Randolph County, Illinois, daughter of James Hughes. James was supposed to have been in the United States Ranger Service in the War of 1812. I don't know whether he was or not, but it is stated in several Randolph and Perry County History Books. His family was pretty good sized by that time.

James was son of Thomas Hughes, who was born about 1760 in West Pennsylvania and came to Illinois Territory from Kentucky in 1783, claiming land on the east side of Kaskaskia River in Montgomery neighborhood (claim # 319 of 400 acres on 9 mile creek). He built a cabin and placed some land under cultivation; going back to Kentucky for his family. The next year, Thomas and his wife and two children, with a party of settlers, were coming down the Ohio River near Ft. Massacre, when they were attacked by Indians. Thomas and the baby, with two other members of the party, were killed. The journey to the wilds of Illinois was interrupted and some years afterward, was undertaken again. In the meantime, Mrs. Hughes had married James Pillars and they arrived at Kaskaskia in 1795 to make the settlement.

Martha's brothers were James, who died in 1842.

John, who lived northwest of Cheater, Illinois.

Stace, who lived in the O'Harr neighborhood, on west side of the Kaskaskia River and died in 1857.

Felix, who was a magistrate near Cheater, Illinois.

Henry, who lived in the home place east of the river.

James Hughes died in Randolph County, Illinois. I do not know, yet, about his wife, whom he married and brought from Kentucky in 1800.

Matilda Susan Bourland was born November 27, 1819 in Monroe County, Mississippi, near Cotton Gin Port. Her parents were Andrew and Demaria D. Reese Bourland. Andrew was born on October 7 or 27, 1794 in Laurens County, South Carolina. He married, on January 13, 1816 in Christian County, Kentucky. Demaria was born on May 4, 1796 or May 9, 1795 in South Carolina. Their children:

Emily Overton Bourland, born March 3, 1817 in Hopkins County, Kentucky, who married John W. Brown on April 9, 1835 in Perry Co., Illinois. Emily died on June 12, 1845.

John Daniel Bourland was born May 25, 1821 in Stehe, Mississippi and married (1) Mary Powers (2) Catherine Carroll. J.D. died on November 2, 1880 in Woodlawn, Illinois. Information about this family was given by our cousin, T.G. Martin of Memphis, Tennessee.
The family of John Daniel Bourland:

Haaptom Holbrook was born January 8, 1823 in Hopkins County, Kentucky, and married Luicindoro Narcissus Pratt on June 6, 1844 in Pinckneyville, Illinois. Haap died on February 22, 1847.

Andrew Bourland died May 6 or 8, 1841 and is buried at Vandalia, Illinois. Demaris Reese Bourland died May 18, 1876 and is buried at Watson Cemetery, Effingham, Illinois.

Andrew Bourland's parents were Rev. John Bourland, Jr. and his wife, Mary Loving. John was born December 12, 1762 to John, Sr. and his wife, Katherine Randolph. John, Jr. married Mary Loving about 1784. Mary was born May 26, 1769 to Gabriel Loving of Virginia. John was living in Laurens County, South Carolina, without slaves in 1790, page 74. They evidently moved from South Carolina to Kentucky in about 1803. They were in Henderson County (later called Hopkins) Kentucky in 1810 census, and in Flat Creek Church, Red River Association in Tennessee in 1812. (This does not mean necessarily, that they lived in Tennessee, but that they represented their church in that associational meeting.) I hope that I have a proper list of their children;

William Bourland was born 1785 and died 1818 in Hopkins County, Kentucky, unmarried.

Mary Rachel Bourland, born April 9, 1790 in South Carolina, married Nathan Higgs on June 1, 1808 and died October 1, 1846 in Hopkins County, Kentucky.

Joseph Bourland (who was blind) was born about 1791 in South Carolina.

Polley L., born June 11, 1807, married William P. Brown on October 3, 1825 and died May 25, 1863 in Hopkins County, Kentucky. Rev. John Bourland, Jr. was a primitive Baptist preacher. He died May 11, 1844 and Mary Loving died January 20, 1849. They are buried at Old Richland Cemetery, Hopkins County, Kentucky. John Bourland, Jr.'s brothers and sisters were probably: Rev. William, born about 1765, married Martha Slaton, daughter of John and Susanna and died July 6, 1806 in Horton's Gap.

Ebenezer J., born about 1768 in Virginia, married Abigail Loving and died Franklin County, Arkansas about 1842.

This family was located in Salisbury District of North Carolina before the revolutionary war and moved from Yadkin River Area of North Carolina to 96 District of Laurens County, South Carolina and to Pendleton District, South Carolina.

I believe that the children of Gabriel Loving, born 1725 and died June 25, 1790 are:

Demaris D. Reese was born May 4, 1796 near Roaring Springs (between Trigg and Christian Counties) Kentucky. Her parents were Capt. Ephraim T. and Anna (Nancy) Earle Reese. Ephraim was son of Rev. Joseph Reese of Richland County, South Carolina. The children of Ephraim and Anna were:

Marian Reese, who married Willis Willbanks on April 29, 1810.

Polly C. (Mary) Reese, who married Slaton Bourland on October 9, 1815 and died on December 13, 1833. (Slaton was Andrew's brother.)

My ancestress, Demaris D. Reese, born May 4, 1795, who married Andrew Bourland on January 13, 1816 and died May 18, 1876.

Demaris’ mother, Anna (Nancy) Earle, was daughter of Baylis and Mary Prince Earle. Baylis was born August 8, 1734 in Stafford County, Virginia. He lived in Frederick County, Virginia; came to South Carolina in 1773. Baylis was a member of South Carolina Senate and House; a Justice. He and his family joined the Baptist Church in Virginia in 1770 and founded Wolf Creek Baptist Church in Landrum, South Carolina. He was clerk there in 1803. Baylis married Mary Prince on April 16, 1757 in Frederick County, Virginia.

Mary, daughter of John Prince and Sarah Berry, was born December 19, 1744. They had 14 children:

Sarah (Sallie) Earle was born January 4, 1757 in Frederick County.

* (please look at conclusion of Chapter 2 for Capt. Samuel Earle.)

John (Jack) Earle was born 1762 and died at age of 5 in Virginia.

Anna (Nancy) Earle was born December 24, 1764 and married Capt.

Epiphia T. Reese.

John Earle, Jr. was born Sept. 18, 1766 and married Nancy Holland Burns before 1790; went to Christian County, Kentucky and Muhlenburg County, Kentucky by 1800; Pontotoc, Mississippi and died in 1818.

Theron Earle, born March 13, 1783, married Hannah Miller and died November 3, 1841.

Asaphia Earle, born February 21, 1785, married (1) Mary Montague and went to Floyd County, Georgia. A cousin from this line is Ruth Oliver of Huntsville, Alabama.

Providence Earle, born July 10, 1788, married John Lucas. They went to Kentucky and then to Monroe County, Mississippi.

Mary Prince Earle died in 1807; Baylis Earle died on January 6, 1825 at Earlesville. They are buried in Spartanburg County, South Carolina at a family cemetery.

As stated previously, Mary Prince Earle was daughter of John Prince and his wife, Sarah Berry. John was a Justice in 1759.

He came from King George County, Virginia to Frederick County, Virginia; to Greenway Court and Kersey's Ferry; later to Prince's Fort at Spartanburg County, South Carolina. He was a member of the Second Provincial Congress (1775-6) of the First General Assembly and of the Council of Safety; Commissioner and South Carolina Senator (1778-80). John Prince was born about 1710 and married Sarah Berry. I am sure of three of their children and suspect others. I will someday get to South Carolina to do the research which had to be postponed this summer. When I do, I will be happy to share that information with anyone who is interested.

The children of John and Sarah Prince of which I am sure are:

Henry Berry Prince, married Janet McEwaney. They lived at Greenville County, South Carolina and their son, William, married Lydia Earle and lived in Clarkeville, Tennessee in 1784.

Mary, our ancestress, who married Baylis Earle.

Thomasine, born October 1, 1746, who married Col. John Earle in Virginia and died in 1781 in Rutherford, North Carolina.

John Prince died February 16, 1782. His estate lists a widow named Mary. So, he must have married a second time; if this is his estate. I will be checking on this. From Earles of America, Virginia Branch, page 101: "John Prince, a descendant of Edmund Prince, Gentleman, to whom, for transportation of persons into the colony, was issued on 4th of October, 1639, a patent for 500 acres of land in the county of Charles City. John Prince moved from Virginia to settle near Mt. Zion in Spartanburg County, South Carolina."

At one time, the portion of Spartanburg County, South Carolina was part of Mecklenburg County, North Carolina (1766), then Tryon County, North Carolina (1768) back to South Carolina in 1772 (Spartanburg County, 1785-96 District.)

Sarah Prince was daughter of Joseph Berry of King George County and Frederick County, Virginia; who developed Berryville. Sarah had a brother, Joseph, Jr., who married Hulda. Joseph, Jr. and Hulda had one daughter, Rebekah, who married (1) John Wood (2) Col. John Earle. She died May 27, 1839 in Spartanburg County, South Carolina.

Baylis Earle was son of Samuel Earle, III and his first wife, Anna Sorrell. Samuel III was born in 1692 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. They married in May of 1726. Anna was born 1707. Their seven children are:

Samuel Earle, IV, born 1727 in Stafford County, Virginia, married a Perkins and died in 1752.

Anna S. Earle, born 1728, who married Charles Buck, Sr. in Muddy Run Chapel in 1747 and died in 1799.

Our ancestor, Judge Baylis Earle, who married Mary Prince.

Col. John Earle was born about 1737 and married (1) Thomasine Prince (2) Rebekah Berry Wood and he died in 1809.

Rachel Earle, born 1740, married George Neville and died in 1829.

Hannah Earle was born 1742 and married Samuel Wilcox.

Lettice Earle was born 1744 and married (1) John Neville.

Anna Sorrell Earle died 30 of December, 1748 in Warren County, Virginia and is buried just outside Muddy Run Plantation in the Shanandoah Valley, Virginia. Her parents were Hagenot Planters in Westmoreland County, Virginia; attended church at Yeocomico; lived on Noami Creek. Thomas Sorrell, her father, was son of John of James City County, Virginia. John's wife was Mary.

Thomas Sorrell died in February of 1726 and his father had died in 1702.
Elizabeth O'Canny Sorrell, wife of Thomas, was daughter of Daniel (Danny) O'Canny. Danny died in 1726. Elizabeth died in 1725, leaving seven children. I only know of two of them at this time:
Lettice married (1) Challis (2) John Wilcox (3) Charles Buck.

Our ancestress, Anna, was the youngest of the seven Sorrell children, and, as stated, married Samuel Earle, III.

After Anna's death, Samuel Earle, III married Elizabeth Holdbrook on January 13, 1754 in Stafford County, Virginia. Elizabeth was half-sister of Sarah Pattison Conyers, who married Thomas Hampton.
She must have been a young woman, for after Samuel, III died in 1771, she married twice more. The seven children:

Theodora Earle married Matthew Compton.
Elizabeth Earle married Benjamin Elkins, Jr.
Mary Ann Earle married (1) John Byrne (2) John Overall.
Samuel Earle, IV born 1760, married Tabitha Williams and went to Kentucky and Alabama.

Col. Elias Earle married Frances W. Robinson.
Elias Earle married Sarah Brownly.
Elias Earle died unmarried.

Elizabeth Holdbrook Earle married (2) Joseph Byrne(Burns) and Elizabeth and Joseph's daughter, Nancy Holland Burns, was born December 4, 1773. Nancy's descendant, Joseph Earle Birnie of Atlanta, Georgia, was much help with the Samuel Earle III family. Joseph did a book about the Birnie family, which included that of our ancestor, Baylis Earle.

Elizabeth Holdbrook Earle Burns married (3) Edward Rogers.

Samuel Earle, III was son of Samuel Earle, II of Cople Parish and Yeocomico Church. He was born 1670 in Westmoreland County, Virginia and married Phyllis Bennett in about 1691.

Samuel Earle, II and his wife Phyllis had five children:

Hannah Earle married Col. John Baylis.
Elizabeth Earle married William Hackney, Jr.
Our ancestor, Samuel III.
Phyllis Earle who married John Mockridge.
Mary Earle, married John Kite and died in 1735.

Samuel Earle, II died in July of 1746. His will is dated 1744 in Westmoreland County, Virginia. Phyllis Bennett Earle, was the doctor of John Bennett, who resided in Westmoreland County, Virginia and who married (2) as her third husband, Matilda
Allerton Earle Rust (stepmother of Samuel Earle, II).

Samuel Earle, II, of course, was son of Samuel Earle, I. Samuel I was born about 1640 in England and married about 1669 Bridget Hale (Hayles). They had a son, our ancestor, Samuel II and Bridget died in 1694. She was daughter of Thomas Hale of Westmoreland County, Virginia. Thomas Hayles (Hale) bought Yeocomico land from the Indians in 1649.

Samuel Earle, I married (2) Matilda Allerton and died in 1697.

Samuel Earle's parents were John and Mary Symons Earle. John was born in 1612 in Nye, Wincosbe, Somersetshire, England. He mar-rried Mary Symons about 1637 in England. Mary, sister of Francis, was born 1617 in Gloucestershire, England. They lived in Westmoreland County, Virginia. Here are three of their children:

William Earle
Samuel Earle, born 1640, married (1) Bridget Hale (2) Matilda
Allerton and died in 1697.

John Earle, Jr.

Mary Symons Earle died 1659 and John Earle died in September of 1660. They are buried at Caple Parish Church in Westmoreland.
County, Virginia.

I have in my notes that John Earle may have married (2) just before his death, Elizabeth Causen Howell. Have not studied this.

Virginia Maynard of Columbia, South Carolina did a nice book about our Earle line.

* A son was omitted from the list of children of Baylis Earle and his wife, Mary Prince. He was second child of 14.

Captain Samuel Earle was born November 28, 1760 and married Harriett Harrison on March 12, 1793 in Greenville County, South Carolina. Samuel died November 23, 1833 in Oconee County, South Carolina.

Chapter 3

WILLIAM JOSHUA BRADLEY’S MUM’S FOLKS

Grandpa’s mother, Sarah Ann Brown Bradley, was born October 13, 1849 in Effingham, Illinois. She married Joshua Ferdinand Bradley on November 26, 1871 and died on June 20, 1902. Sarah was daughter of William Alexander Brown and his wife, Louisa Jane Renshaw and granddaughter of Joseph Martin Brown and Theresa Nancy Parke.

I made the mistake at one time of thinking that William A. Brown was son of William Waddle Brown who left an estate in Effingham, Illinois and a widow named Sarah. Because Sarah had the same name, I jumped to that conclusion. I was wrong; Joseph Martin Brown is definitely our ancestor.

It is said that Brown inherited musical ability. Joseph Martin Brown was a singing teacher, using tuning fork for starting.

"The Brown let heart rule and were lively, witty and exuberant; had square dances every week or so; were generous and loving family" In a writeup about Joseph Martin Brown it is stated that at the age of 76 he had 75 grandchildren and 31 great grandchildren and lived on Pulifer Creek. Joseph Martin Brown was born on August 1, 1811 in Wilkes County, North Carolina and married Theresa Nancy Parks on July 20, 1830. Theresa, daughter of Samuel and Phoebe Caldwell Parks, was born about 1811, probably in Lincoln County, Tennessee. Joseph Martin and Nancy Brown were the parents of twelve children:

- William Alexander was born May 1, 1832 in Lincoln County, Tennessee and married Louisa Jane Renshaw on December 29, 1853 in Shelby County, Illinois. Louisa Jane was born August 23, 1831 or 1832 in Shelby County, Illinois. She was daughter of John Renshaw and his wife, Mary Carr. The children of William A. and Louisa:
Sarah Ann, our ancestress, who married Joshua Ferdinand Bradley and whose descendants are listed in chapter 1.

James Franklin Brown, who was born December 29, 1856 in Effingham, Illinois and married Effie Alice Fender. Their four children were:
Nancy, who married Walter T. Scales.
Lucille Brown.

Youngest of Joseph Martin and Theresa's children, Joseph M., Jr., was born in July of 1855 and died September 26, 1855 in Shelby County, Illinois.

Theresa Nancy Parks Brown, born about 1811 or 1814, was daughter of Samuel Parks and his wife, Phoebe Caldwell. They were in the 1830 Franklin County, Tennessee federal census. Samuel was born about 1769. Phoebe's father was Joseph Caldwell and history books state that her mother was a Haley. Supposedly, Phoebe Caldwell was born 1761 in Ireland. I have not been able to research this. Their ten children are:

William M. Parks, born about 1799 in Virginia. He married Mary Brown, sister of Joseph Martin and Jesse Franklin Brown of Franklin County, Tennessee.

Andrew C. Parks was born 1802 in North Carolina and married Sarah Franklin on February 11, 1827 in Franklin County, Tennessee. Sarah was born 1806, daughter of Moses Franklin. They went from Franklin County, Illinois to Shelby County, Illinois in 1829 and were in Effingham County, Illinois in 1839. I correpsond with two researchers from this line; they are Joyce Parks of Watson, Illinois and Aden Lauchner of Springfield, Illinois.

The children of Andrew and Sarah Parks are:

Elizabeth, married Cyrus S. Thompson on April 7, 1847.

John Parks, born 1830.

Nancy Ann Parks, born 1835.

Markus Lafayette A. Parks was born 1838 or 39 in Effingham, IL and married Sarilda C. Brockett on July 11, 1863. Sarilda was born May 3, 1845 to John L. Brockett and Amanda Martin. The children of Lafayette and Sarilda Parks are:

Etta May, born July 1, 1864 in Illinois, married Preston Ely Davidson. Preston was born in 1839 to Noah C. and Sarah Hooten Austin Davidson. He died in 1931. Their children:

Andrew C. Parks died May 26, 1848 in Piebla, Mexico. Sarah Franklin Parks died in 1873 and is buried at Ebenezer Cemetery in Effingham, Illinois.

Third child of Samuel and Phoebe Parks' children was Samuel B. He was born about 1804 in North Carolina and was in Shelby County, Illinois by 1830. I believe he and Andrew C., his brother, were casualties of the Black Hawk War.

Nicholas W. Parks, whose wife, Julia, filed for divorce between 1836 and 1841 is likely fourth child of Samuel and Phoebe Parks. The children of Nicholas W. and Julia were George; John; Hilda Catherine. Moses Chambers Parks was the grandson. Nicholas was deceased by 1850.

Robert Caldwell Parks was born about 1809 and married Flora Wakefield. Their son, Samuel Moody Parks (1841-1894) married Ellen LaZinka Brazier on August 24, 1859. Ellen was born August 23, 1840 and died December 26, 1901. I was surprised to meet a descendant of theirs one time when researching in the Winchester, Tennessee library. Nancy Clark does volunteer work there. A lovely cousin.
Phoebe was sixth child of Samuel and Phoebe Parks. She was born about 1810 and married Jesse Franklin Brown. Phoebe, Theresa, and Robert N. are siblings. They married siblings from the W. Brown family. Jesse Franklin was born about 1807. I have been fortunate enough to make the acquaintance of another cousin, Katherine Walker, who is a descendant of Phoebe and Jesse Franklin Brown, through their daughter, Zeleda Emaline Brown, born June 1827, who married Ambrose Lee Stafford. Ambrose was born in 1826. Katherine lives in Tullahoma, Tennessee.

Next child of Samuel and Phoebe Parks is our ancestress, Theresa Nancy, whose descendants I have just related; who married Joseph Martin Brown.

George was possibly son of Samuel and Phoebe Parks.

David M. Parks married Martha A. and they had a daughter named Mary Ellen. David is buried beside his mother in Loy Prairie Cem.

I am listing Joseph C. Parks as youngest. Our cousin, Marvelle Muntzel of Dallas, Texas sent me a birthdate of June 25, 1815 or 1817 for Joseph C. He died February 15, 1856 at the age of 39 years and is buried at Point Lookout Cemetery, Shelby County, IL. Joseph married Lucinda Awtalt on July 22, 1830. Lucinda, daughter of Jacob C. Awtalt and his wife, Nancy Franklin, died January 11, 1893 and is buried at Mt. Zion Cemetery in Effingham, Illinois. Their children:

Barbary A. Parks was born October 4, 1849.

Mary L. Parks was born August 7, 1850.

B.P. Parks was born January 13, 1852.

Amanda J. Parks was born August 15, 1855 and died September 2, 1856.

Samuel Parks was county Judge of Effingham County, Illinois; having come to that county in 1834. He died in 1846 and is buried at Pt. Lookout Cemetery, Shelby County, Illinois.

Phoebe Parks married Jacob Sypes on November 5, 1849 in Shelby County, Illinois. She is listed in the 1870 census as a widow and is in the household of her son-in-law, Joseph Martin Brown, after the death of Jacob. She lived until January 20, 1873 and is buried in Loy Prairie Cemetery in Watson Township, Effingham, Illinois.

Capt. William Brown was the father of Joseph Martin Brown. He married Ann (Nancy) Isbell on September 6, 1801 in Wilkes County, North Carolina and died in 1821 in Lincoln County, Tennessee. Nancy was daughter of Livingston and Nancy Martin Isbell. This is as near a list of their children as I've been able to compose; Nancy Brown married George I. Black.
Livingston L. Brown.

Jesse Franklin Brown, born in April of 1807 in North Carolina, married Phoebe Parks, sister of Nancy Theresa and William, who married his brother and sister. Jesse Franklin died in 1870 and is buried in Brown Cemetery in Franklin County, Tennessee. 1860 census of Franklin County lists Jesse P. Brown, 53, born in North Carolina; Phoebe Brown, 51, born in Tennessee; James Brown, 15, born in Tennessee; America Jane, 11, born in Tennessee; James W. Smith, 12, grandchild, born in Arkansas; Thomas P. Smith, 10, grandchild, born in Arkansas; Andrew D. Smith, 8, grandchild, born in Arkansas and Jane Bagget, 17, domestic.

Mary Brown married William Parks. I believe that this is brother to Theresa Nancy and Phoebe Parks, who married Mary's brother and sister.

Joseph Martin Brown, our ancestor, who married Theresa N. Parks.

Wade Hampton Brown, born August 17, 1815, in Wilkes County, North Carolina, who married (1) Elizabeth Awaunt on January 11, 1835 in Franklin County, Tennessee. Elizabeth was daughter of Jacob C. and Nancy Franklin Awaunt. Their children are:

Thomas L. O. Brown, born January 1, 1836 in Franklin County, Tennessee, and died September 2, 1859.

John Martin Brown was born February 2, 1850 in Shelby County, Illinois and died in Solano, California.

William Orlando Butler Brown was born September 24, 1850 and died January 18, 1902 in Shelby County, Illinois. I see by the 1850 census for Shelby County, Illinois lists the child born in 1843 as Nathan Brown. Elizabeth Awaunt Brown died January 20, 1853 and is buried at Quigley Cemetery, Shelby County, Illinois.

Wade Hampton Brown married (2) Amanda Caldwell on December 21, 1854. Amanda was born March 1826 in Halifax, Virginia and died in early 1880s in Shelby County, Illinois. I will list the children as given by Leclena Nickman of Arvada, California;

Amanda Elizabeth, born November 17, 1856 in Shelby County, Illinois and died January 9, 1885.

Musie Elderid Brown, born November 19, 1857, married Alvin Sheley on July 4, 1881 and died July 12, 1871 in Shelby County, Illinois.

James Allen Brown, born January 28, 1861, who died in Miles City, Custer, Montana.

Herchul M. Brown, born July 23, 1862, died in Arizona.

Cora A. Brown, born April 7, 1866 in Shelby County, Illinois.

Wade Hampton Brown died July 15, 1869 in Windsor Township, Shelby County, Illinois.

Possibly the seventh child of William and Nancy Brown was Martha M. Brown. She was born in 1818 in Franklin County, Tennessee and married Domia T. Reynolds.
There is an unusual document in the courthouse at Lincoln County, Tennessee, wherein Nancy (widow of William Brown) sells land to Jacob Hamilton on July 1, 1826 very cheaply, as was often done for kin. It is a theory that Jacob may have been a son-in-law, but there is really no proof for this. Jacob had three wives and 14 children, so it is entirely possible.

Ann/Nancy Isbell Brown’s parents were Livingston Isbell and his wife, Nancy Martin. Livingston Isbell was born November 17, 1751 in Albemarle County, Virginia. He married Nancy (Ann) Martin about 1770 or 1772. Ann was born June 11, 1753. This date of birth is subject to question. Their four children:

Susannah Chiles Isbell was born January 21, 1773 and married Thomas Barlow on January 24, 1794. Thomas, son of Henry B. Barlow, Jr. and his wife, Judith Land, was born August 25, 1760. I only have three of their children listed, although I am sure there were several more. They are:

Hastens Livingston Barlow, born March 27, 1795.

Nancy M. Barlow, born September 10, 1796, who married J.W. McCann.

Cynthia Childs Barlow, born July 8, 1798, who married either D. Winthrop or Humphrey Foot.

Thomas Barlow died on January 30, 1825 and Susannah died January 12, 1863. They are buried in Scott County, Kentucky.

Second child of Livingston and Ann Isbell was Francis Livingston. She was born in 1774/5 and married Ambrose Parks on December 2, 1790 in Wilkes County, North Carolina. Ambrose was born about 1765 to Thomas Parkes, Jr. They had 9 or 10 children.

Martin Livingston Parks was born 1793 and married Susan Smith in 1818. Susan was born August 8, 1803. Martin died December 12, 1845.

Allen W. Parks was born March 18, 1789 and married Fannie Miller on January 12, 1822. Fannie, daughter of John and Elizabeth, was born on May 17, 1802.

Thomas Lodge Dennis Parks, third child of Ambrose and Frances, was born in Wilkes County, North Carolina, where all of his sisters and brothers were born.

Martha Parks was born April 6, 1797 and married Benjamin Isbell on February 17, 1818 in Wilkes County, North Carolina. Benjamin was son of Thomas Isbell and his wife, Discretion Howard. Martha and Ben had the following eleven children, as recorded in Notable Southern Families:

Miriam Isbell, born February 25, 1819, married Matthew Jacob Turnley on May 28, 1839 and she died January 9, 1896.

Thomas Martin Isbell was born March 3, 1821 and married Sarah Ann Terry on December 21, 1843. Thomas died June 19, 1859.

Frances Discretion Isbell was born March 11, 1823 and married (1) John Hughes on March 30, 1852 (2) William L. Rice in 1867. She died January 29, 1886.

Martha Ann Isbell was born November 9, 1825 and married Robert Houston McMillan. Martha died April 27, 1844.

Mary Louise Isbell was born November 5, 1827 and married Richard Franklin Malone Hampton on November 5, 1844.

Some reports say that Dennis Rowan Isbell was born September 1, 1829 and some say 1839. He married Emma Callaway on December 28, 1871.

Sarah Elizabeth Isbell was born September 29, 1829, so I really think that the later date is correct for Dennis. Sarah married Judge Jesse Caut. She died May 28, 1864.
James Parkes Isbell was born July 20, 1831, never married, and died April 19, 1852.

Benjamin Howard Isbell was born July 1, 1833, never married, and died on September 8, 1864.

John Williams Isbell was born August 7, 1835, never married, and died July 7, 1864.

Lucinda Missouri Isbell was born July 4, 1837 and married her sister, Martha's widower, Robert Houston McMillan on July 9, 1855. Lucinda died April 25, 1918 in Talladega, Alabama.

Martha Parke Isbell died July 15, 1846. Her sister,

Susan, daughter of Ambrose and Frances Parks, married Lee Hubbard.

Polly Parks married George.

Ambrose Lee Parks married Kleanor H. Watts and died in 1850 in Lynchburg, Tennessee.

James Parks died in Moore County, Tennessee, which is where Lynchburg, Tennessee is located.

Cynthia Parks married a Barnes.

I'm not sure, but some say that Ambrose and Frances were the parents of Hastings Parks.

Ambrose and Frances Isbell Parks are buried in Missouri.

Third child of Livingston and Ann Isbell is Mary (Polly M.).
She married James T. Brown on March 25, 1797 in Wilkes County, North Carolina. James was son of John and Jane McDowell Brown.
The will of James Brown was probated 17 of October, 1829 in Lincoln County, Tennessee; leaving wife, Mary, 3 youngest sons-

Alexander, James and William; 6 youngest daughters, Martha, Harriet, Clarissa, Ann, Polly, Elizabeth and Jane Waggoner.
There were probably others.

Youngest child which I have listed for Livingston and Ann is our ancestress, Nancy Martin Isbell, who married William Brown on September 6, 1801 in Wilkes County, North Carolina. According to our cousin, Anne Noblit of Tullahoma, Tennessee, Livingston died in 1785 in Wilkes County, North Carolina, before his 34th birthday and Ann married James Davidson.

Nancy Martin's father, Joseph Martin Brown's great grandfather, was Joseph Martin, born about 1685 in Bristol, England. I believe that is in Gloucestershire County. He was a Sea Captain.
He married Susannah Chiles. Their children:

George Martin who married Mary (Molly) Durratt and whose will was dated 1777 in Albemarle County, Virginia.

Major Erice Martin, married (1) Frances Lucas, sister of Sarah
(2) Rachel Lucas on August 7, 1793 in Orange County, Virginia.
He died in 1819.

Captain William Martin married Rachel Dalton and his will was probated in March of 1800 in Stokes County, Virginia. I believe he was buried in Hughesville (Patrick County), Virginia.

Brigadeer General Joseph Martin, Jr. was born September 18,1740 at Charlottesville in Old Louisa (Albemarle) County, Virginia.
He married Sarah Lucas, daughter of William and Mary, in 1762, in Orange County, Virginia. Sarah died with smallpox on March 17,1782 in Henry County, Virginia, leaving 7 children. Ellen Humble of Williams, California is from this family. Joseph, Jr.
moved Susannah Graves, daughter of William and Mary, on February 24, 1784. Susannah was born about 1763. Joseph and Susannah had ten children. He went west; worked among the Cherokees in Virginia, Tennessee, Georgia, and South Carolina; married 3 Scotch-Indian women; Well-known Betsy Ward, Widow Mary Emory Pawling, and Widow Susannah Emory Fields. Joseph Martin, Jr. died December 18, 1868 in Henry County, Virginia.

Susannah Martin, daughter of Joseph and Susannah, was mentioned in her father’s will as having no heirs so far. She was not married by 1760, the date of his will.

Sarah (Sallie) Martin married Thomas Burros about 1745 in Hanover, Virginia and she died May 11, 1772 in Surry County, North Carolina. Thomas was one of the administrators of Joseph’s estate.

Mary Martin married John Hamscho and deceased before 1771.

Martha Martin married Pomfret Waller, Sr. after 1760 and she died June 20, 1813 in Henry County, Virginia.

I believe that our ancestress, Ann (Nancy) Martin was next; she married (1) Livingston Isbell about 1770 and (2) James Davidson on April 14, 1800 in Wilkes County, North Carolina. I feel that she probably died in Wilkes County.

Olive Martin was born about 1759 in Louisa County, Virginia and married Ambrose Edwards on March 15, 1774 in Louisa County. She is mentioned in her Uncle John Chiles’ will, which was dated October 10, 1774 (daughter of his sister, Susannah, wife of Joseph Martin). Olive died in Henry County, Virginia.

Susannah Chiles Martin died, probably in Hanover County, Virginia. They had lived in Caroline County, Essex, Louisa, Albemarle, and Hanover Counties, Virginia. Part of this was probably found in new counties, and not physical moves. Joseph was Justice of Peace and in 1765 was Commissioner in Louisa County, Virginia. Their church affiliation was in St. Paul’s Parish in 1730. After Susannah’s death, Joseph married (2) Anne Musick Sandridge, widow of William, on June 26, 1754.

Joseph Martin died his will December 3, 1760 in Albemarle County, Virginia.

His father, William Martin, a wealthy merchant of Bristol, England, saw in 1733 that his youngest son, Joseph, was about to contract an undesirable marriage and outfitted him as “super cargo” on one of his own ships, “The Brio”. He sent this young man to Virginia. I do not know who Joseph’s mother was, although I feel that it won’t be hard to learn about this family, when I have more time. If you are interested, contact me in a couple of years.

Known brothers and sister of Joseph, who married Susannah Chiles, are George, John and Nancy.

Susannah Chiles married Joseph Martin shortly before or after 1730. Her father, John Chiles, received a land grant in 1690 and was a messenger of Council in 1693. He was a Justice and a member of the assembly in 1714-23, when he died. John was a Church Warden at St. Margaret’s Parish. He married (1) Mary Hoocher, daughter of William of Hanover County, Virginia. I believe Mary had 4 children before her death; William Chiles who died in 1778 in Caroline County, Virginia.

Mary Chiles

Eleanor Chiles

Micajah Chiles, who married a daughter of Joel Terrell, Sr.

John married (2) Eleanor Webber, daughter of Henry, and I believe that they had 4 children, also; although the daughter, Eleanor, could very well have been from this marriage.
John Chiles died in 1774 in Spotsylvania County, Virginia.
This was John, Jr.

Chapter 4

EMMA BURPO BRADLEY’S DAD’S FOLKS

James Thomas Burpo, our great grandfather, who was a blacksmith before his death in 1935 in Ravenna, Texas, was son of George W. Burpo and his wife, Mary E. McNeely. George was born about 1828 in Tennessee and married on November 3, 1850 in Maury County, Tennessee. Besides our ancestor, James Thomas, there were a daughter and another son born before Mary’s death.

H. Edith was born about 1852 in Tennessee. She married, after 1880, Walter Chenoworth. Aunt Violet said that they had two sons who were agents for Santa Fe Railroad at Marced, California, at one time.

William H. Burpo, brother of James Thomas, was born in May of 1854 and married Mattie B. about 1896. Mattie was born August, 1872 in Kentucky, according to the 1900 and 1910 Carlisle County, Kentucky census records. It seems like there are daughters, according to the old picture that Aunt Mae let me copy. George Dewey was born in April, 1890.

William E. was born August 1, 1900 and died May 25, 1966, according to the Milburn Cemetery Markings book.

Henry E. was born in 1906. William was still living in the 1910 census. It is possible that we have some cousins of Uncle Will Burpo living at this time. I would love to know.

After the death of Mary McNeely Burpo, George married Margaret E. Gibson on August 2, 1855 in Maury County, Tennessee. I do not know whether they had children or not. Probably there were some. Margaret is incorrectly listed on James Thomas Burpo’s death certificate as mother, so I think they were raised with that assumption.

The parents of George W. Burpo were Jacob and Peggy Alvis Burpo. Jacob was born about 1804 in North Carolina. He married Margaret (Peggy) on April 17, 1827 in Maury County, Tennessee. I have a copy of their precious old marriage bond. Margaret was born about 1811 in Tennessee. Their 9 children:
